

WESTERN AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIALS BOAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE HONOUR BOARDS

The Boans' Department Store Honour Boards were located in the Store that ran from Murray Street (now a section of the Murray Street Mall) through to Wellington Street, Perth and mostly on the site of the now Myer Perth Department Store Building. The World War I Honour Board is held at the army Museum, Fremantle, while the World War II Honour Board is unable to be located.

This document provides further identifying information for the names of Sailors, Soldiers and Airmen on the Boan's World War I and World War II Honour Boards. The Roll of Honour for WWI shows both casualties and enlistees while the WWII Roll shows only casualties. Places of Association or Rolls of Honour or Places of Birth are shown. The information has been taken from Appendix 1 of the book "Boans for service: the story of a department store 1895 to 1986" by David Hough that was published in 2009.
