WESTERN AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIALS SANDAKAN MEMORIAL, KINGS PARK

The Sandakan Memorial is located on Marri Walk and its inscription reads:

This Memorial is dedicated to the 3400 Australian and British Servicemen who were Prisoners of War in Borneo during World War II and did not return home.

They endured great suffering and loss at the hands of their captors at Sandakan, on the death marches to Ranau, at Kuching and other POW Camps.

These Honour Rolls list the names of the 137 Western Australians who did not survive.

They are not dead; not even broken; only their dust has gone back home to the earth; for they, the essential they, shall have rebirth whenever a word of them is spoken." – Dame Mary Gilmore.

The Memorial is to the soldiers and airman who died during a series of forced transfers (Marches) of Prisoners of War from Sandakan to Ranau. The Marches occurred from January to March 1945, during May and June 1945, and from June to the Japanese surrender on 15 August 1945. The Marches were the worst atrocity suffered by Australian Servicemen during the WWII. The Memorial also lists Prisoners of War held in North Borneo who died before the Marches commenced.

The local Roll of Honour or Place of Birth from the Department of Veterans' Affairs (DVA) WWII Nominal Roll is shown. This document can be searched by text. Further biographical and Service information for each Soldier or Airman may be found on the National Archives of Australia, the Australian War Memorial, the Commonwealth Graves Commission, and the DVA Websites.
