CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

MONDAY, 18 DECEMBER 1989

VENUE: Gallipoli Room, Anzac House, Perth.

TIME: Fellowship 1200 hours
Luncheon 1250 hours

Instead of requesting impromptu stories (real, imagined or poached) from those present at this pleasant Christmas gathering as has been done before, this year we have asked several articulate members to entertain us with anecdotes that they feel will interest and hopefully amuse all of us attending the festive occasion. They will be introduced during the course of the courses. Please enjoy good fellowship among good fellows.

SPEAKER - NOVEMBER

When booking seats for journeys by rail, passengers of yester-year were frequently concerned that they should travel with their backs to the engine. There was no doubt a variety of reasons for such a preference but one suspects that safety was not one of them. Last month Geoffrey Thomas spoke to us on "Air Safety and Deregulation" and among many other interesting details he included the fascinating fact that in some aircraft accidents forward facing passengers did not survive whereas some with their backs to the engine did.

Geoffrey gave us an informed glimpse into the fiercely competitive world of commercial aviation and included many factors and statistics to support the statement that it is safer up there than it is down here on the road. He also made us aware that deregulation will bring with it unwelcome problems of even more competitive costs which should not be permitted to compromise the highest standards of air safety in the world that we enjoy here in Australia. A thought-provoking, informative and entertaining address, Geoffrey, and we do thank you.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

First, a report on the LADIES' NIGHT DINNER of 24 November. In short, THOROUGHLY ENJOYABLE - a sumptuous buffet of great variety and appeal, in a relaxed happy atmosphere, interspersed with amusing yarns by Highgate members. If you were not there you missed a really good evening!

So don't miss the CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON on 18 December. No guest speaker - entertainment by Highgate members themselves. Guests very welcome. Any member in need of a lift, give the Secretary a call and we'll try to arrange this.

A special plea for those on the SICK LIST and in hospital. Do let us know, so that others can visit and they don't feel forgotten.

Finally, the most important greeting of the year - To each member and your family, a safe, peaceful and JOYOUS CHRISTMAS! And may we all meet again early in the New Year.

SAM DALLYWATER

SICK LIST

At the time of writing our Two Star General JOHN CHAPPELL is still in Hollywood and would doubtless welcome visitors. DON LOGAN was discharged but back in Hollywood, hopefully only for a check-up. LEN IKIN and AUBREY LLOYD back on board. Aub reckons the surgeon must have done a good job as his voice hasn't changed to soprano.

R.S.L. MEMBERSHIP SEMINAR

This was held in November and Senior Vice President Tom Ferrero attended as Highgate Representative. His comments are too lengthy to reproduce, but were informative and give much food for thought.

POPPY DAY APPEAL

Treasurer Aubrey Lloyd has produced his statement, which will be published in detail later, but although collections were up on last year we could have done much better with more voluntary collectors.
