FEBRUARY MEETING. Mrs Nicolette Quekett, as expected, delivered a fascinating account of her visits to China. It was unfortunate that we could not give her more time.

ANZAC DAY BREAKFAST As you know, the April Luncheon is cancelled and the Breakfast takes its place. At this time of the year, it is always necessary to hold the Committee Meetings one week later to avoid clashing with the Public Holidays, and so, unfortunately, details of the Anzac Day Breakfast are not available as this Newsletter is being written up. As last year's was so successful, no doubt there will be little or no change - venue, timings, etc, remaining the same - i.e. the W.A. Club at 7.30 am. Cost will need to be worked out.

As time is running short, a tear-off slip is included in this Newsletter and will be repeated (with final details) in the April Newsletter. Please return it to the Secretary by whatever is the most convenient method for you (or a telephone call to 279 8626), so that an accurate return can be given to the organisers.

Guess who will be promoted to One Star General at the next Luncheon?
(No prizes for correct entries)

For reasons of safety, British families were evacuated from Cairo. Just before the family of one official left, their small son asked if he could go to see "Gordon" again - the life-sized figure of General Gordon mounted on a camel. The boy's father was touched as he saw him look wistfully at the statue, then say sadly, "oodbye Gordon". The father was proud of his son's patriotism until, as they walked away, the boy asked thoughtfully, "Dad, who is that man sitting on top of Gordon"?
