MONTHLY LUNCHEON

There will be NO LUNCHEON in APRIL. Instead you are requested to support the Anzac Day Breakfast. Further details inside the Newsletter.

SPEAKER IN MARCH. James McGlinchey gave us a wide ranging and very interesting view of the Iraqi situation. Question time highlighted the value members placed on it, and we look forward to his company at the Anzac Day Breakfast.

ANZAC DAY 25 APRIL 1991: Deputy Warden Ron Stone is looking for a good turn-out of Sub Wardens for the Dawn Service. Parade 05.30 hours, march on 05.45 hours, Service commences 06.00 hours. As stated in last month's Newsletter, the breakfast will commence at 07.30 hours at the W.A. Club, 8th Floor, 18 The Esplanade, Perth. Parking available until after the Service (entry on the left of the building as you face it). Cost $15.00, including refreshments. A tear-off slip is at the end of the Newsletter, but if there is not time to return it a telephone call is equally acceptable. Ron Stone has said the Club is pretty flexible with regard to numbers, so do not be deterred from turning up if circumstances do prevent you from giving advance notice. Last year's attendance of approximately 70 was, I believe, a record.

The official guests will be the U.S. and New Zealand Consuls, and two delegates from Perth's twin city in Italy, Vasto.

STATE CONGRESS 1991 will be held this year in Perth on the 14th, 15th and 16th June. The following members of our Sub Branch have submitted their names for re-election to the State Executive.

As President - Jim Hall. As Vice President - Peter Firkins.
For the Committee - John Surridge and Abel Dacre.

Our list of delegates has to be submitted by the 31st May and additional volunteers will be called for at the May Luncheon.

VALE

Member Gavin MacRae (Tom) BUNNING O.A. passed away on the 15th March and, despite the short notice, there were several members of the Sub Branch at his funeral.

Tom served with the 2/4 Machine Gun Bn, and the fact that he was held in very high regard by the whole community was proved by the large attendance of his old friends at the Chapel.

LEST WE FORGET

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER received from Tom Simpson, now returned home to Arizona after his Perth holiday.

"Thank you Highgate, for your warm welcome to the Luncheon Meetings and Memorial Ceremony in Kings Park. Colleen and I both enjoy the formal night at the Club, and the delightful company of others at our table.

Tom Simpson.

WELCOME TO NEW MEMBERS, JOHN POPE, RAYMOND HANNAH and LESLIE STEWART.

John served with 2/28 Bn, Ray with the Army in Vietnam, and Les with the SAS and is currently 2 I.C. of the 11/28 Bn.

SICK LIST. At the time of publication MAX BRICE is still in Hollywood after surgery, but GEOFF RUSSELL is back in action looking more like his old self.

MISSING WITHOUT TRACE. Newsletters for the following members have been returned marked "NO LONGER AT THIS ADDRESS".

- R.K. APPLETON of East Victoria Park.
- A.E. WILLIAMS of Cottesloe
- K.J. HUNT of Willetton

Can anyone help?
